MEDIA RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE 21/9/97

Liberal Youth Policy – The Dark Side

The Liberal Government is planning to send South Australians to jail for growing more than three cannabis plants. This will be especially dangerous to the many young people here who use and grow cannabis.

"This move will raise the price of cannabis on the streets, and you'll get busted more often even if you are growing a few plants for yourself", said HEMP SA State Election Campaign Spokesperson Jamnes Danenberg.

"And of course there's the danger of going to jail yourself. The Liberals have just released their youth policy – but they didn't bother telling you about the young South Australians who will go to jail if they get their way with the three plant plan"

Mr Danenberg went on to point out: "Mike Duffy wrote in the Sunday Mail [21/9/97] that the Liberal Government 'is not even prepared to present itself for scrutiny and cross-examination'.

"HEMP welcomes media scrutiny. We'll be having a media conference on the corner of Rundle Mall and King William Street in the city at 1.30 pm this Wednesday September 24. Everyone's invited to quiz us on our policies – the public has a right to know what we stand for"

Mr Danenberg is unable to confirm or deny the rumour that he will be smoking cannabis at the media conference
