MEDIA RELEASE 17/2/98 : For Immediate Release

HEMP CALLS FOR REALITY CHECK ON PREMIER!

HEMP SA today slammed Premier Olsen's planned sale of ETSA. At the last election Mr Olsen explicitly promised NOT to sell ETSA. His excuse now is that we can't afford not to. "Before he breaks his promise to all South Australians he should think again" said HEMP spokesperson Mr Jamnes Danenberg .

"The SA Cannabis crop is worth hundreds of millions of dollars annually, probably more than our wine industry, and none of which is taxed, regulated or quality controlled" Mr Danenberg said. "Instead of selling taxpayers short, it's time Mr Olsen got on the grass; Cannabis users need taxing!" he said.

"Regulating the presently illegal Cannabis trade would separate Cannabis from harder drugs, and bring hundreds of millions of dollars into the State's economy which could reverse the continuing underfunding of our health and education sectors and eliminate the need to sell ETSA or any publicly owned asset" he explained.
